HEAD COACH: Joe Grimaldi (Maryland '49), 3rd season

ASSISTANT COACH: Joe Cryan (Maryland '74), 10th season

1983 UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND SOCCER PREVIEW

In just two short years, Joe Grimaldi has turned Maryland's soccer fortunes completely around. When Grimaldi took over the head coaching duties for the 1981 season, the Terps had just suffered through one of the worst seasons in school history with a 3-12 record.

Now, just two years later, Maryland, with six lettermen returning from last year's 10-6-3 squad, will be shooting for another winning season and a possible post season tournament invitation.

Last season, Grimaldi and Maryland earned critical acclaim. Grimaldi was chosen the Atlantic Coast Conference "Coach of the Year" after a superb job. Despite a difficult schedule, Grimaldi guided Maryland to its most wins since the 1969 season, its most ACC wins since 1977 and a 1-1 tie with NCAA runner-up Duke University.

Entering the 1983 season, the biggest question mark for the Terrapins will be at the goalkeeper position. Gone from last year's squad are Ken Wilkerson, a 1st team All-South and 2nd team All-ACC pick, as well as backup Mark MacLaughlin. " The goalkeeper position is wide open, " explained the third year coach. Sophomore Ed Constantine, who saw brief action last year, is the only returning player with any goaltending experience.

The forwards will probably include Reza Mohseni, the team's leading scorer in 1982 (7G,1A) and Desmond Armstrong (2G,2A), a converted halfback who qualified for the Olympic Trials while playing in a regional game this past summer in New Jersey. The third offensive spot will come from either David Pasquito, a Junior College transfer from Mercer Junior College, or Mamo Tamerit, a member of the Ethiopian National Soccer Team. Senior Patrick Nelson can fill in ably if needed.

The midfield unit will most likely feature three new faces with two Junior College transfers and a freshman. JUCO's Tom Farran, out of Nevada Las Vegas Junior College, and Peter Dugan, out of Takoma Park Junior College, along with freshman James Friday will all be vying for a starting position.

Defensively, three year letterman and captain John Fink heads the list of outstanding returners that helped the Terrapins set a school record 10 shutouts in 19 games last year. Junior Ken Moore and sophomore Glen Singer also return as letter-winners to anchor what should be a stingy Maryland defense.

Altough improved from last year, Maryland's depth is still a problem. The Terps cannot afford to lose a starter at any position for an extended length of time. Injuries, or the lack of them, could well determine how Maryland fares this year.

Once again the schedule will prove to be extremely challenging for the young Terrapins. There is always the demanding ACC slate which includes NCAA runner-up Duke University, as well as Virginia, Clemson, N.C. State, North Carolina, and Wake Forest. Non-conference foes include traditional powers American University, James Madison, and the U.S. Naval Academy.

The Terrapins will open their 1983 season on September 10, with Delaware University in the second annual Maryland Invitational Tournament.

1983 MARYLAND SOCCER COACHING STAFF

JOE GRIMALDI - HEAD COACH

Joe Grimaldi begins his third year as head soccer coach at the University of Maryland after guiding the 1982 Terrapins to their most victories since the 1969 season with a 10-6-3 record. Grimaldi and Maryland gained critical acclaim last season, as he was chosen Atlantic Coast Conference "Coach of the Year" by the ACC coaches after doing a superb job with a rebuilding Maryland program. His two year record stands at 15-13-7.

Grimaldi became head coach at the University of Maryland in the fall of 1981, after closing out an outstanding 15 year coaching career (126-12-12) at nearby Walter Johnson High Scool in Montgomery County. Grimaldi's soccer teams at Walter Johnson captured 11 County Championships and were Maryland State finalist five times.

Grimaldi, a 1944 graduate of Central H.S. in Washington, D.C. and a 1949 graduate of Maryland where he lettered on the 1947-51 Southern Conference champion Track and Cross-Country squads, received his Master's in Education in 1951. From 1949 thru 1965, Grimaldi taught and coached at MacFarland, Maryland Park, Montgomery Hills and Newport Junior High School's.

Besides his soccer duties at Walter Johnson, Grimaldi taught Health, Physical Education and Driver Education while also coaching the Basketball and Swimming squads. Grimaldi presently is a member of the National Coaches' Soccer Association of America and the Metropolitan Washington Soccer Referee Association. Grimaldi makes his home in Silver Spring, Maryland and has been married the past 33 years, to the former Josephine Totaro.

JOE CRYAN - ASSISTANT COACH

Joe Cryan returns to the 1983 University of Maryland coaching staff for his tenth season as an assistant coach in charge of the goalies and out of state recruiting. Cryan is a native of Trenton, New Jersey where he attende' Notre Dame High School and gained All-State honors his junior and senior seasons.

Cryan played for Maryland in 1965 and 1966 before turning pro during the 1966-67 season with the Washington Darts. After serving two years in the U.S. Army, Cryan returned to Maryland and graduated in 1974. Cryan presently is teaching at Laurel High School in Prince George's County and has completed his Master's Degree in Education at Bowie State College. Cryan is the proud father of two daughters Mary Anne (8) and Bonnie (4) and is married to the former Noreen Zoltanski.

1982 ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE SOCCER

The Atlantic Coast Conference enjoyed one of the closest league races in its history in 1982 and saw one of its co-champions finish second in the nation. None of the seven conference teams suffered a losing record and four ACC members were ranked in the nation's Top 20 at the close of the regular season. Three of those four received NCAA bids, as co-champion Clemson lost to Duke and Virginia to George Mason in the second round, while the co-champion Blue Devils lost an eight-overtime thriller to Indiana in the finals.

Duke and Clemson finished the conference season with differenct league marks but with identical .833 percentages, giving the ACC its second co-champions in the league's history. Virginia, which enjoyed its most successful season ever, finished third, having lost but one conference match. Surprising Maryland, rebounding from last season's winless ACC mark, tied N.C. State, which was ranked 16th nationally at regular season's end, for fourth place. Wake Forest and North Carolina tied for sixth place, as the Tar Heels started the year strong, climbing to 13th in the national poll, before being hit by injuries and ending the year winless in the conference.

N.C. State's Sam Okopdu was voted the league Player-of-the-Year, by the ACC coaches, after winning the ACC scoring race with 72 points on 29 goals and 14 assists. Maryland mentor Joe Grimaldi was voted by his colleagues as the Coach-of-the-Year, after improving the Terrapins' league mark from winless last season to 2-3-1 in 1982. Duke's senior defender, Joe Ulrich, last season's ACC Player-of-the-Year, was named the Robert R. Hermann National Collegiate Soccer Player-of-the-Year after leading the second-ranked Blue Devils to a school-and conference-record 22 victories.

The ACC bettered last season's 71-13-9 mark against non-conference foes, by finishing the year with an 84-12-7 record.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATION

RICHARD M. "DICK" DULL- Director of Athletics

Dick Dull begins his third year as Director of Athletics, bringing to the position a blend of experiences as an athlete, coach, athletic administrator and attorney. A graduate of the University of Maryland in 1967 with a bachelor of arts degree in political science, Dick entered the University of Maryland School of Law and was graduated in 1971 with a Doctor of Laws Degree. He subsequently passed the Maryland bar exam, and was admitted to the practice of law before the Court of Appeals of Maryland and the Federal District Court for the District of Maryland in 1972.

While attending Maryland as an undergraduate, the Gettysburg, Pennsylvania native lettered three years on the university's track and field team, and was an ACC, SEC-ACC meet, Penn Relay, Florida Relay and National Junior AAU champion in the javelin event. In 1967 he was eighth in both the NCAA and AAU national championships.

After four years of practicing law in Baltimore and Washington, D.C., Dull returned in 1975 to his first love, athletics, as the assistant business manager, later rising to the business manager and assistant to the athletic director positions. Dull was named Athletic Director in the summer of 1981, after serving one year as Assistant Athletic Director for non-revenue sports.

COL. TOM FIELDS- Executive Director of the Maryland Educational Foundation

Col. Fields, a former Maryland All-American distance runner took over his duties at Maryland in 1970 and the success of his program has been phenomenal. When Fields retired from the Marine Corps to take over the Educational Foundation, contributions to the scholarship fund totaled $30,000. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983, money generated totaled over $1,350,000.

Fields's energy and enthusiasm follow the patterns he established during a record breaking sports career at Maryland, as well as during 28 years of distinguished service in the Marine Corps. He enrolled at Maryland as a freshman track star in 1937 and went on to win six Southern Conference Championships, as well as All-American honors in 1940.

The work of Fields, with over 1,900 contributors, is imperative for the overall success of the Maryland athletic program. The contributions has not only enabled the Terrapins to regain their national prestige in just about every sport. The University has also instituted a scholarship program for women athletes on a par with the program the men's non-revenue sports.

DR. CHARLES A. TAFF- Chairman of Athletic Council

Dr. Charles A. Taff, Professor of Transportation, College of Business and Management, is currently serving as Chairman of the Athletic Council. Dr. Taff served as Chairman of the Department of Business Administration from 1962 to 1973. He is the author of numerous articles and of four books, two of which are in their sixth editions.

For fifteen years Dr. Taff was the Editor of the Transportation Journal, a professional publication that is published quarterly, and is currently a member of its Editorial Review Board.

He served as a member of the Joint U.S.-Canadian St. Lawrence Seaway Tolls Committee which recommended the fee structure for the Seaway. Dr. Taff has also served as a transportation consultant to the President's Council of Economic Advisers under four U.S. Presidents.

In addition, he has served in an advisory capacity to other agencies of the government and private business firms. Dr. Taff has served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

JOHN W. "JACK" ZANE- Assistant Athletic Director

Jack Zane returned to Maryland in August of 1969 after serving as the Sports Information Director for George Washington University for six years. He received his degree in Journalism from Maryland in February of 1960 after serving as a student assistant to Joe Blair for three years. He served as a full-time assistant to Blair for two years after graduation. While at Maryland, he was the first Executive Sports Editor of the Diamondback, SMC of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity and a member of Sigma Delta Chi Journalism fraternity.

While at G.W.U., he served as President of the Southern Conference SID's and on the Executive Committee of the Southern Conference Sports Writers Association. He has served three terms as a Vice President of the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association. Zane is on the Public Relations Committee of the NCAA, has been a member of CoSIDA for 19 years and is currently the 2nd Vice President of CoSIDA. He is also a member of the Football and Basketball Writers of America, the Sports Reporters Association of Baltimore, the Maryland chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, and the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

A graduate of Southern High in Lothian, Md., Zane served four and a half years in the Navy before enrolling at Maryland. He is married to the former Judy Allen of Fayetteville, West Virginia, and a graduate of George Washington University.

JIM DIETSCH- Academic Advisor for Intercollegiate Student-Athletes

Jim Dietsch returns for his third year as the Academic Advisor for the Athletic Department. Dietsch will be responsible for all academic matters concerning the men and women student-athletes that participate in the 23 intercollegiate sports (13 men and 10 women). Some of Dietsch's duties include; 1) providing tutorial help to any student-athlete; 2) helping all incoming freshmen athletes with orientation; and 3) monitoring grades of all student-athletes during the entire school year.

Dietsch is a native of Baltimore, Md., where he attended Baltimore Polytechnic High School. Dietsch, a 1969 graduate of Maryland, also served for three years with the U.S. Army following his graduation. In 1974, he started working with the Maryland Athletic Department as an Assistant Soccer and Lacrosse Coach. In 1975, Dietsch was selected to be the Head Soccer Coach, succeeding Buddy Beardmore. Dietsch resigned from his Head Soccer coaching position in the winter of 1980 after compiling a six-year overall record of 35-41-9 with his 1976 team advancing to the NCAA Soccer Playoffs. Dietsch is married to the former Barbara Yates, a Maryland graduate, and they are the proud parents of two children, Erica Lee (2), and Kevin (3 months).

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Today, the University of Maryland at College Park is described as a Georgian Colonial campus, with nearly 200 buildings spaced across a rolling 1,300 acre park-like setting. The College Park campus is a city of young people with all the advantages, excitement and problems of a community. While the focus of the campus community is on its academic and intellectual activities, the campus has its own daily newspaper, its own police department, an 18 hole golf course, hotel, stores, movie house, theatre, art gallery, pub, bowling alley, tennis courts and swimming pools.

An undergraduate student may specialize in one of 127 majors or create a program of individual studies. Pre-professional education is offered in 15 different fields and the academically talented student may take advantage of the Honor's Program. The graduate student may choose from among 81 academic concentrations.

Noted for the academic strength of its programs the University of Maryland is one of the 51 members of the prestigious Association of American Universities. It is currently the seventh largest university in the nation and, with such size, comes quality. This means better facilities, not only in the day-to-day classroom, but also in the research and faculty staff. Our teaching staff consists of over 6,000 personnel - which brings our student/professor ratio down to 16-1. This allows us to offer a degree in a variety of fields.

The University of Maryland enjoys what is probably the best location of any college in the United States. The University is located in Prince Georges County, the fastest growing county in the nation. The University's immediate metropolitan neighbors are the two great cities of Washington,D.C. and Baltimore. The 40 mile Baltimore-Washington corridor is one of the richest concentrations of resources and intellectual talent in the world today. For the student at College Park, nine miles from the nation's capital, many of the country's best research facilities are within easy reach: the Library of Congress, the Shakespeare Library, the National Library of Medicine and Agriculture, to mention just a few.

In addition to traditional scholarly materials, all around College Park are the kinds of cultural opportunities and entertainment that only a major metropolitan area can provide . Washington's famous Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts houses a concert and theatre hall, is home for the Washington National Symphony Orchestra and headquarters of the American Film Institute. Art galleries and theatrical companies abound downtown and in the cultural haven of D.C.'s Georgetown.

One of the great port cities of the world, Baltimore is just a 35 minute drive from campus. Known for its people's strong sense of neighborhood identity, the city's varied ethnic populations, industrial complexes and lively cultural life make it an attractive neighbor to Washington, D.C. Among its many attractions is the frigate Constellation, the first ship of the U.S. Navy, historic Fort McHenry and Francis Scott Key's "Star Spangled Banner," and the ethnic fare of the huge Lexington Market.

In this area of exceptional opportunities, College Park's relationship with the corridor's resources is not just one of proximity. Close working relationships have developed over the years between College Park and some of the country's most important agencies and institutions, from NASA to the Smithsonian to the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Annapolis, the state capital of Maryland and the home of the Midshipmen of the U.S. Naval Academy lied only 35 miles from the College Park campus. Richmond, the state capital of Virginia and Philadelphia, Pa. are both only 100 miles from College Park.

In 1807, the University of Maryland was founded in Baltimore as the College of Medicine. An entirely faculty-owned institution granting the M.D. degree, it was the Nation's fifth medical school. When its name was changed to the University of Maryland in 1812, it was given power to confer additional degrees. The first Dental School in America, the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, became a part of the University in 1840. Subsequently, the University opened schools of pharmacy, law and nursing. In 1856, a group of Maryland people prevailed upon the General Assembly "to establish and endow an Agricultural college in the State of Maryland." Thus, the second institution, first called the Maryland Agricultural College, came into being at College Park.
